The Hunt is On — Join the DIY Detective Movement to Stop the Assassins

Welcome to the DIY Detective Movement

I’m Larry Margulies, and for over a decade, I’ve been fighting for my life. What started as a personal nightmare has become a rallying cry for justice—a movement we call DIY Detective. This isn’t just my story; it’s a call to action for anyone who believes that no one should live in fear, hunted by a network that’s supposed to protect us. The threats are real, the assassins are still out there, and the clock is ticking. But I’m not alone anymore. Through the Assassin Hunters Academy and our Artful Detectives program, we’re building a community of citizen investigators ready to stop them. This booklet is your guide to joining us. Are you ready to join the fight? Let’s get them.

The Dark Business of Assassination

Assassination isn’t some Hollywood twist—it’s a real, chilling business, and my case lays it bare. For ten years, I’ve been dodging a calculated operation where lives are traded like stocks, allegedly with a nudge from government insiders who should be on my side. Evelyn Yudowitz, from her Florida base, is accused of orchestrating solicitation to commit murder, stalking, and conspiracy, with ties reaching into the FBI, CIA, and beyond. My criminal matter isn’t just a story—it’s evidence of a system gone wrong, where power shields the guilty.

But here’s the flip side: my fight is our fuel. In the Assassin Hunters Academy, we take my case and turn it into a hands-on lesson—how to spot the clues, connect the dots, and push back against threats like these. This isn’t about spinning tales; it’s about digging into a real-world mess and doing something about it. Stick with us, and you’ll see how deep this goes—and how we can fight it together.

Our Mission: Stop the Assassins, Protect Lives

Our mission is clear and urgent: stop the assassins, expose the network, and hold the guilty accountable. For ten years, I’ve faced solicitation to commit murder, stalking, and conspiracy, allegedly orchestrated by Evelyn Yudowitz, with ties to the FBI, CIA, and international crime rings. This isn’t a closed case; it’s an active threat. But we’re not powerless. With filed police reports and evidence establishing probable cause, we’re operating within the law, using every right a crime victim has to seek justice. Our goals are threefold:

Protect lives by identifying immediate dangers.

Uncover the web linking Yudowitz to corrupt insiders.

Gather evidence to ensure justice is served.

This is not a game—it’s a fight for survival, and we need you in it.

Assassin Hunters Academy: Structured Investigative Training

The Assassin Hunters Academy is where you step up. Whether you join us through our podcast, local meetups, or social media chats, you’ll be part of a community learning to investigate real cases. No experience? No problem. We’ll teach you to read a room, handle evidence, and even use art to sharpen your skills. Art isn’t just for show—it’s a tool. Sketching suspects, mapping criminal networks, or designing posters to find and protect witnesses—it all helps us see what others miss. In the Artful Detectives program, we blend creativity with detective work, making it a powerful weapon in our fight.

Program Description: Artful Detectives

In the Artful Detectives program, we dive deep into my case. You’ll investigate the evidence, create projects like “Observation Boards” to spot patterns, and practice presenting your findings. This isn’t theory—it’s hands-on, tied directly to stopping the threats I face. You’ll learn to think like a detective, create like an artist, and speak like a leader. It’s not just about skills; it’s about making a difference. Every lead you uncover, every connection you trace, brings us closer to justice.

Program Goals

Our goals are straightforward:

Equip you with the tools to observe, analyze, create, communicate, and collaborate.

Learn to notice details, solve problems creatively, and present your findings with confidence.

Help protect lives, including mine, and push for justice.

This is real, and your role is crucial.

Who Should Jump In?

Anyone can join:

Concerned citizens

Students

True crime fans

Artists

Legal professionals

If you’re near where the crimes happened or close to the suspects, your local knowledge could be key. But even if you’re miles away, your passion and commitment are what we need. No fancy credentials required—just the will to fight for what’s right.

Program Structure: Learn, Create, Speak

Each session is a mix of three parts:

Detective training

Art projects

Public speaking

You'll learn to assess risks, handle evidence, and understand criminal behavior. Then, you'll create art that ties into the investigation—like designing posters to rally witnesses. Finally, you'll practice presenting your work, whether it's to a group or on a podcast. It's all connected, all focused on my case, and all about getting you ready to contribute.

Example Program Schedule

Throughout the Assassin Hunters Academy, I guide you through a dynamic mix of activities:

Sharpen situational awareness to spot potential risks.

Master crime prevention techniques like securing your home or staying safe online.

Dive into investigative methods such as note-taking and evidence handling.

Explore forensic science through hands-on tasks like analyzing trace evidence or sketching suspects.

Craft "Observation Boards" to uncover patterns in evidence.

Design "Evidence Envelopes" to practice proper documentation.

Map out criminal networks.

Create "Reward Posters" to encourage witness cooperation while protecting their safety.

Design and build your own travel door stop wedge alarm—a portable, custom-made security tool.

Collaborate to solve this expansive crime, pooling your skills to crack the case.

Every activity builds toward the Artful Detectives Showcase, where you'll present your projects—including your door stop wedge alarm—and share insights to rally support for our mission.

Artful Detectives Showcase

The Artful Detectives Showcase is your moment to shine. You'll present your projects—those sketches, maps, posters—and share your insights. It's not just a celebration; it's a chance to show what you've learned and pull more people into the fight. Think of it as your graduation with a purpose—justice.

Criminology Meets Creativity

This program isn't just fun—it's a serious intro to criminology. By mixing art with investigation, we make complex ideas stick. You'll sharpen your thinking, problem-solving, and communication skills—stuff that matters in life and maybe even a career. And it's all tied to my case, so you're learning by doing something that counts.

Resources You'll Need

You don't need much to join:

Basic art supplies (paper, markers)

Optional: a phone for recording podcasts

We'll also bring in guest speakers—cops, detectives, lawyers—to give you the real deal. The most important thing? Your drive to make a difference.

What You'll Walk Away With

By the end, you'll know the basics of criminology and investigation. You'll spot evidence, assess witnesses, and present findings like a pro. These aren't just skills for show—they're tools you can use to help solve real cases, like mine.

Ongoing Case Study: Larry’s Fight

My criminal matter is our core focus. The publication of this account is intended to ensure that the truth is documented and accessible while respecting the legal process. You’ll dig into the reports, trace connections, and develop leads. This isn’t practice—it’s the real deal. Your work could save lives, including mine. That’s the stakes, and that’s why we need you.

Guest Speakers: Real Expertise

We’re not alone in this. We’ve got pros—law enforcement, forensic experts, legal scholars—dropping in to share their know-how. They’ll tie their expertise straight to my case, giving us the edge we need to crack it.

Your Role: Be an Assassin Hunter

As an Assassin Hunter, you’re not just watching—you’re in the game. Dig into my case, share what you know, create art that helps, and spread the word. Every bit counts, and we need all hands on deck.

How We Work: Legitimate and Lawful

We’re legit, not vigilantes. We’re based on my police reports and the rights every victim has. We stick to public info, work together, and stay within the law. We’re here to help the authorities, not replace them.

Join Us: Let’s Get Them

The assassins are still out there, but so are we. Join us—hit up a meetup, start a project, drop a lead. This book isn’t just a read; it’s your invite to act. What are you waiting for? The time to act is now. Let’s get them.

A Movement for Justice

DIY Detective is more than a group—it’s a movement for justice. You’re the heart of it. Share this online, live our mantra, and let’s win this together. Together, we’ll stop the assassins, expose the truth, and make sure justice prevails.

The allegations aren’t just a wild tale—they’re a wake-up call. The danger’s real, the stakes are sky-high, and justice can’t wait. Through the DIY Detective movement, the Assassin Hunters Academy, and the Artful Detectives program, we’ve built a legit way for you to jump in and fight back. By joining us, you’re not just picking up skills—you’re helping save lives, expose the guilty, and push for what’s right. Our mantra’s simple: “Let’s Get Them.” Now it’s on you to make it real.

Stepping into the Light - The Criminal Complaint That Brings the Truth to the Forefront

To: DIY Detectives-

Executive Summary

Evelyn Yudowitz used her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, as the central hub to orchestrate a sustained criminal campaign against me, coordinating threats, solicitation of murder, and obstruction of justice through phone calls, emails, and intermediaries. Since 2010, Evelyn Yudowitz has used her Aventura home to orchestrate crimes against me, including murder plots and stalking, forcing me to stay overseas by March 31, 2025. Key acts include a 2017 email admitting a murder contract (Exhibit 9), a 2020 SMS from assailants tied to her (Exhibit 2), and 2015 threats and bribery attempts against my then-pregnant girlfriend, Lesyl Medalla, to assist in my murder, including the suspicious death of our baby (Exhibits 17 and 18). Her attorney, Ken Shulman, furthered this Aventura-based scheme by forwarding the 2017 email from Boston, MA. These offenses, anchored in Aventura, demand immediate investigation under Florida jurisdiction.

Complainant Information

Name: Larry Margulies

Current Location: Overseas (address withheld due to ongoing threats)

Mailing Address: 848 North Rainbow Blvd 4884, Las Vegas, NV 89107

Email: larry@diydetective.org

Defendant Information

Name: Evelyn Yudowitz

Current Residence: Aventura, FL, Miami-Dade County

Jurisdictional Note: Offenses originated from Aventura, FL, where Evelyn Yudowitz resides and coordinated acts via phone and email since 2010. Her seasonal Massachusetts residency is irrelevant, as Aventura was the base for planning and directing these acts, establishing Florida jurisdiction under Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(a)(2)..

Name: Ken Shulman

Current Residence/Workplace: Office of Ken W. Shulman, One Federal Street, Boston, MA 02110

Jurisdictional Note: Shulman's act of forwarding the 2017 email (Exhibit 9), authored by Evelyn Yudowitz from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, constitutes a tortious act that furthered her Florida-based conspiracy to commit murder. By disseminating the email, which explicitly admitted a murder contract with the statement "You put a price in our heads," Shulman advanced Evelyn's scheme, orchestrated from her Aventura residence, to solicit and facilitate my murder. This act amplified the threat against me, causing an effect in Florida by perpetuating the fear and harm tied to Evelyn's Aventura-based operations, as my refuge and the ongoing threat are linked to her actions within the state. This establishes long-arm jurisdiction under Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(a)(2), which applies to non-residents who commit tortious acts that cause injury in Florida, even if the act occurs outside the state, provided it furthers a scheme based within Florida.

Statement of Facts

The following facts demonstrate how Evelyn Yudowitz, from her Aventura residence, orchestrated a series of criminal acts, including solicitation of murder, tampering with a witness, obstruction of justice, and stalking, all aimed at preventing me from reporting her crimes and forcing me into overseas refuge. Evelyn Yudowitz's explicit connection to the threats and actions in Hong Kong and the Philippines is evidenced by her direct coordination from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, through phone calls, emails, and her network of intermediaries. She maintained constant communication with the assailants, providing them with my location and other critical details, ensuring that each act of harassment was executed under her direction and control from Aventura. This coordination establishes a clear pattern of willful, malicious, and repeated harassment. The following factual allegations support the charges against Evelyn Yudowitz and Ken Shulman, demonstrating a sustained campaign against me that has forced me into overseas refuge by May 5, 2025:

2014 Fund Withholding and Interference

In 2014, Evelyn Yudowitz withheld $100,000 (Exhibit 1) from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, to strand me in the Philippines facing dangerous assailants after I begged for my life and sought a repatriation loan to report her to the FBI. She insisted I use her State Department liaison, which failed, keeping me trapped. The State Department had informed me that I needed $2,500 to leave the Philippines, but Evelyn sent only $1,500, deliberately insufficient to cover my travel expenses. This partial funding was a calculated tactic to strand me in the Philippines, physically preventing me from reaching the FBI headquarters to report her in person. Additionally, Evelyn's liaison interfered with my repatriation loan application, further blocking my ability to secure the necessary funds to travel. At the same time, Evelyn falsely told the State Department that I was mentally ill, undermining my credibility and discouraging their assistance in facilitating my departure. Concurrently, her intermediaries—Americans who knew my location from the repatriation loan application—came to my room and threatened to kill me, escalating the danger and directly linking these threats to her efforts to stop me from reporting her crimes. Evidence: Exhibit 1.

2015 Threats and Bribery Attempts

In 2015, Evelyn Yudowitz coordinated threats to kill me and attempts to bribe Lesyl Medalla to assist in my murder, visiting her mother's house only listed on my repatriation loan application and our rooms as we moved to evade them, with references to poisoning our baby, who died suspiciously (Exhibits 17 and 18), all coordinated via phone calls from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL. These actions included threats to shoot me and bribery attempts against Lesyl, including poison threats tied to our baby's suspicious death, establishing a pattern of willful, malicious, and repeated harassment. Evelyn Yudowitz maintained constant communication with the assailants through phone calls and emails from her Aventura residence, providing them with my location and directing their actions, ensuring that the threats and bribery attempts were executed under her explicit instructions. Evidence: Exhibits 17 and 18.

2017 Email Admitting Murder Contract

In 2017, Evelyn Yudowitz admitted in an email to putting a "price in our heads" after learning of my books exposing her actions, stopping funding (Exhibit 9), authored from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL. This email, forwarded by Ken Shulman, explicitly states, "You put a price in our heads," admitting to a murder contract and serving as an overt act confirming her solicitation of my murder, reflecting her retaliatory motive after my exposure of her actions, and demonstrating her coordination of the murder plot from Florida. Evidence: Exhibit 9.

2020 SMS Senders Tracking and False Claims

In 2020, SMS senders tied to Evelyn Yudowitz tracked me and made false claims (Exhibit 2), despite my recent arrival in Hong Kong and lack of local contacts. This tracking was facilitated by an agent within her network who had access to border crossing information, a capability restricted by law to authorized agents, providing real-time knowledge of my movements to those involved in the contract on my life. This pattern is evident in prior incidents where I was targeted immediately after crossing borders: in Seattle (2010), an assassination attempt involved a dropped bottle; in the Philippines (around 2013), I was followed to my hotel and faced another foiled assassination at a dinner; in Mongolia (February 28, 2017), I was kidnapped and nearly murdered at my hotel; and in Macao (March 3, 2019), an American agent inquired about my appearance during the crossing. Evelyn coordinated these efforts from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, through emails and intermediaries, ensuring the SMS senders could locate and threaten me as part of her ongoing campaign. This indicates prior surveillance and a pattern of willful, malicious, and repeated harassment. Evidence: Exhibits 2, 6.

2020-2021 Un-redaction of Medical Records and Interference

Between 2020 and 2021, Evelyn Yudowitz directed a helper from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, to un-redact medical billing records intended for doctors whose assessment was to be provided to the Hong Kong police as part of their investigation into my mental health and the SMS senders' threats, which I had reported prior to October 8, 2020 (Exhibit 4). By directing the un-redaction of these records, Evelyn Yudowitz engaged in misleading conduct intended to influence the doctors' assessment, thereby obstructing the Hong Kong police investigation initiated by my prior report. Additionally, Evelyn contacted the doctor's office after the un-redaction, claiming to inquire about the costs of the assessment—an unnecessary action since the costs were already arranged by my attorney—further indicating her intent to interfere with the doctors' assessment. The doctors later informed me via email (Exhibit 12) that my YouTube account had come to their attention, and Evelyn may have contacted them about it to interfere with their assessment of my mental health, which was critical for the Hong Kong police to conduct a valid investigation. Evidence: Exhibits 2, 4, 5, 6, 9, 12.

2021 Email with False Claims and Fund Withholding Argument

In 2021, Evelyn Yudowitz emailed my lawyer with false claims (Exhibit 5) from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, and, via Anne, argued against extra funds to prevent me from seeking their arrests (Exhibit 14), with the argument directed from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL. In her February 2021 email to my attorney (Exhibit 5), Evelyn Yudowitz referenced my private request for a medical assessment 'for legal reasons' (Exhibit 6), which I sent to doctors in 2020 to build a case against her and others. Her specific knowledge of this confidential intent, unlikely to be guessed, supports her pattern of harassment and intent to obstruct my legal efforts from her Aventura residence. These actions demonstrate a pattern of willful, malicious, and repeated harassment and an attempt to obstruct law enforcement. This email, sent directly from her Aventura residence, was part of her ongoing campaign to intimidate me and obstruct justice, further illustrating her use of her network and direct communication to perpetuate the harassment. Evidence: Exhibits 1, 5, 14.

Charges

Evelyn Yudowitz

Solicitation to Commit Murder - Fla. Stat. § 777.04(2)

Elements:

Intent to cause another to commit murder.

An overt act encouraging, commanding, or requesting another to engage in conduct constituting murder.

Facts Supporting Charge: See Statement of Facts, paragraphs 2 and 3.

Paragraph 2 details the 2015 threats and bribery attempts against Lesyl Medalla to assist in my murder, coordinated from her Aventura residence, showing intent and overt acts.

Paragraph 3 describes the 2017 email admitting a murder contract, authored from her Aventura residence and forwarded by Ken Shulman, further confirming solicitation.

Statute of Limitations Explanation: Under Florida law, solicitation to commit murder is a felony with no statute of limitations, as per Fla. Stat. § 775.15(1)(a). This means prosecution can be initiated at any time, regardless of when the crime was committed, due to the severity of the offense, which is punishable by life imprisonment or death. The ongoing nature of the threats further supports the absence of any time bar.

Tampering with a Witness, Victim, or Informant - Fla. Stat. § 914.22

Elements:

Intentionally engaging in misleading conduct or intimidation.

With the purpose of preventing a person from reporting a crime or seeking legal recourse.

Facts Supporting Charge: See Statement of Facts, paragraph 5.

Paragraph 5 outlines the 2020-2021 un-redaction of medical records and interference with doctors' assessments, directed from her Aventura residence, to obstruct the Hong Kong police investigation. By directing the un-redaction of medical billing records and interfering with the doctors' assessment, Evelyn Yudowitz intentionally engaged in misleading conduct with the specific purpose of discrediting my mental health status, thereby preventing me from effectively reporting the crimes committed against me or seeking legal recourse. This tampering would have undermined my credibility with law enforcement and legal entities, making it less likely for my reports to be taken seriously or for me to pursue justice through legal channels.

Statute of Limitations Explanation: The statute of limitations for tampering with a witness, victim, or informant is 5 years under Fla. Stat. § 775.15(2)(b). However, the ongoing nature of the conduct, including the un-redaction of medical billing records in 2020-2021, tolls the statute of limitations. These actions are part of a sustained campaign that continued into recent years, keeping the offense within the prosecutable timeframe.

Ongoing Acts Tolling the Statute: The ongoing murder contract, corroborated by multiple sources, necessitates continuous efforts to discredit me and prevent legal recourse, as evidenced by the 2020-2021 un-redaction of medical records. This sustained campaign, directly tied to the active murder contract, tolls the statute of limitations by ensuring the offense remains active and prosecutable.

Obstruction of an Officer - Fla. Stat. § 843.02

Elements:

Knowingly obstructing an officer.

In the execution of their legal duties.

Without violence.

Facts Supporting Charge: See Statement of Facts, paragraphs 1, 5, and 6.

Paragraph 1 covers the 2014 fund withholding and interference from her Aventura residence to prevent FBI reporting, obstructing their duties without violence.

Paragraph 5 includes the 2020-2021 un-redaction efforts from her Aventura residence, obstructing the Hong Kong police investigation.

Paragraph 6 details the 2021 email and fund withholding argument from her Aventura residence, further obstructing law enforcement efforts.

Clarification Regarding Obstruction of Hong Kong Police Duties:

The Hong Kong Police Force (HKPF) has the legal duties to enforce the law, maintain public order, exercise lawful powers, and support regulatory enforcement. Evelyn Yudowitz's alleged obstruction, along with that of her intermediaries or the SMS senders, directly impeded these core functions:

Hindering Investigations: Evelyn Yudowitz indirectly provided false or misleading information to the HKPF by interfering with my mental health assessment between 2020 and 2021 (Statement of Facts, paragraph 5). She directed the un-redaction of medical billing records and contacted the doctors' office, influencing their assessment, which was intended for the HKPF as part of their investigation into the SMS senders' threats I reported prior to October 8, 2020. This misleading conduct impeded the HKPF's ability to enforce the law and pursue a thorough investigation by compromising the validity of critical evidence they relied upon to assess the threats against me.

Refusal to Cooperate: The SMS senders, tied to Evelyn's network, failed to comply with lawful police requests during the HKPF's investigation. As witnessed by the desk officer during the SMS exchanges and subsequent phone calls, the senders denied ever sending the messages when questioned by the police (Statement of Facts, paragraph 4 and 5). This refusal hindered the HKPF's ability to enforce the law and investigate effectively, obstructing their legal duty to identify and address the source of the threats.

These actions by Evelyn Yudowitz and the SMS senders prevented HKPF officers from executing their mandated duties under Hong Kong law to investigate crimes and maintain public order, constituting an offense under Fla. Stat. § 843.02.

Statute of Limitations Explanation: The statute of limitations for obstruction of an officer is 5 years under Fla. Stat. § 775.15(2)(b). The ongoing conduct, including the 2021 email and argument, tolls the statute of limitations. These recent acts demonstrate a continuous pattern of obstruction extending into the past few years, ensuring the charge remains prosecutable.

Ongoing Acts Tolling the Statute: The ongoing murder contract requires persistent obstruction of my attempts to report the crimes, as evidenced by the 2014 fund withholding, the 2020-2021 un-redaction efforts, and the 2021 email. These actions form a continuous pattern tied to the active murder contract, tolling the statute by keeping the offense within the prosecutable timeframe.

Stalking - Fla. Stat. § 784.048(2)

Elements:

Willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly harassing another person.

Causing substantial emotional distress.

Facts Supporting Charge: See Statement of Facts, paragraphs 2, 4, and 6.

Paragraph 2 describes the 2015 threats and bribery attempts from her Aventura residence, initiating the harassment pattern.

Paragraph 4 details the 2020 SMS tracking and false claims linked to her Aventura residence, continuing the pattern.

Paragraph 6 covers the 2021 email and fund withholding argument from her Aventura residence, reinforcing the repeated harassment causing substantial emotional distress.

Clarification on Willful, Malicious, and Repeated Harassment:

The willful, malicious, and repeated nature of the harassment is underscored by Evelyn Yudowitz's continuous direction and control from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, through phone calls, emails, and her network of intermediaries. Her explicit connection to the threats and actions in Hong Kong and the Philippines is evidenced by her direct coordination of these acts from Aventura, providing assailants with my location, instructing them on when and how to act, and maintaining constant communication to ensure her orders were followed. For example, in 2015, she coordinated threats and bribery attempts against Lesyl Medalla in the Philippines via phone calls and emails from Aventura, supplying assailants with our locations as we moved to evade them. In 2020, she provided SMS senders in Hong Kong with my location through emails and her network, directing their tracking and threats as part of her ongoing campaign. Each incident was a deliberate act within a sustained pattern to intimidate me and prevent me from reporting her crimes, causing substantial emotional distress.

Statute of Limitations Explanation: The statute of limitations for stalking is 2 years under Fla. Stat. § 775.15(2)(c). However, the ongoing pattern of harassment, including acts in 2020 and 2021, constitutes a continuing course of conduct that tolls the statute of limitations. This persistent behavior over multiple years keeps the offense active and within the prosecutable period.

Ongoing Acts Tolling the Statute: The ongoing murder contract drives the repeated harassment from 2015 to 2021, as each stalking incident—such as the 2015 threats, 2020 SMS tracking, and 2021 email—is aimed at intimidating me and preventing exposure of the plot. This continuing course of conduct, directly linked to the active murder contract, tolls the statute of limitations.

Ken Shulman

Conspiracy to Commit Murder - Fla. Stat. § 777.04(3)

Elements:

Agreement to commit murder.

An overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Facts Supporting Charge: See Statement of Facts, paragraph 3.

Paragraph 3 notes Shulman’s forwarding of the 2017 email from Evelyn’s Aventura residence, admitting a murder contract, as an overt act furthering the conspiracy.

Statute of Limitations Explanation: Under Florida law, conspiracy to commit murder is a felony with no statute of limitations, as per Fla. Stat. § 775.15(1)(a), because it is punishable by life imprisonment or death. This allows prosecution to proceed at any time, regardless of the date of the offense, and the ongoing impact of the conspiracy reinforces its prosecutability.

These acts have forced me into overseas refuge by May 5, 2025.

Investigative Requests

Subpoena Yudowitz's 2017 email logs and 2014-2021 phone records from Aventura, specifically from her residence at Aventura, FL, to confirm solicitation and obstruction (noting she used an older email account for the 2017 threat in Exhibit 9 and later switched to a new email account).

Interview Yudowitz at her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, about Exhibits 1, 5, 9, 14, 17, and 18.

Subpoena Shulman's 2017 email logs via Boston PD.

Given the transnational nature of these crimes, including acts in Hong Kong, the Philippines, and China, I request that the Aventura Police Department coordinate with Hong Kong authorities and INTERPOL to investigate the SMS senders (Exhibit 2) and their connections to assailants in other jurisdictions. This cooperation is essential to uncover the full scope of Evelyn Yudowitz's Aventura-based criminal network originating from her residence at Aventura, FL.

Threat Assessment

Exhibit 9, the November 2017 email authored by Evelyn Yudowitz from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, and forwarded by Ken Shulman from Boston, MA, explicitly states, 'You put a price in our heads,' constituting an overt act under Fla. Stat. § 777.04(2). This email confirms Evelyn's intent to solicit my murder, reflecting her retaliatory motive after my exposure of her actions, and demonstrates her coordination of the murder plot from Florida via phone and email from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL. This intent is consistent with prior attempts on my life, including:

2010 Hong Kong bottle attack, where I was assaulted, required stitches at a hospital, and was forced under death threats to abandon my $300,000 investment in Best Score Limited and my new house in Canada due to the same stalking and threats coordinated via phone calls from Evelyn Yudowitz's Aventura residence at Aventura, FL;

2015 threats, where assailants warned of an imminent threat to my life, coordinated via phone calls from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

The overt acts supporting this solicitation include:

2015 chemical assault with an LSD-like substance during my escape from the Philippines, which endangered my life and mental stability, coordinated via phone calls from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL;

2017 parcel delivery by Ken Shulman, which enabled surveillance and further chemical attacks in China, tied to the email authored from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

Due to the persistent and ongoing threats from Evelyn Yudowitz, including the 2015 threats to kill me and coercion of Lesyl Medalla (Exhibits 17 and 18), coordinated via phone calls from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, the 2017 murder contract admission (Exhibit 9), authored from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL, and the 2020 SMS from assailants tied to her network (Exhibit 2), I request a restraining order and police monitoring under Fla. Stat. § 784.046. These measures are necessary to protect my life and ensure my safety, as Evelyn's campaign has forced me into overseas refuge by May 5, 2025, and continues to pose an imminent threat through her Aventura-based operations from Aventura, FL.

Declaration and Sworn Statement

I, Larry Margulies, affirm under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true, based on:

Yudowitz's 2010 phone coordination from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

2014 withholding and interference (Exhibit 1) from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

2015 threats and baby's death (Exhibits 17 and 18), coordinated via phone calls from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

2017 email (Exhibit 9), authored from her Aventura residence at Aventura, FL.

2020 SMS (Exhibit 4).

My overseas refuge by May 5, 2025.

Exhibit 8: A 1979 psychiatric report documenting Martin Yudowitz's long history of violence toward me as a child, for which he received outpatient psychiatric care, and Evelyn Yudowitz's medical negligence in denying me therapy, which she later concealed through redactions and deception. In a 1995 therapy session, Evelyn presented a heavily redacted version of this report while seeking forgiveness for locking me in my room for two years, indicating her intent to hide her actions. Her psychiatrist later confirmed she lied about our home environment, claiming it was fine when it was definitely not, which convinced him there was no need for my therapy. This allowed Evelyn to hide the abuses and maintain a false narrative that harmed me. These events, combined with my pursuit of the unredacted report, demonstrate a decades-long pattern of concealment relevant to the charges.

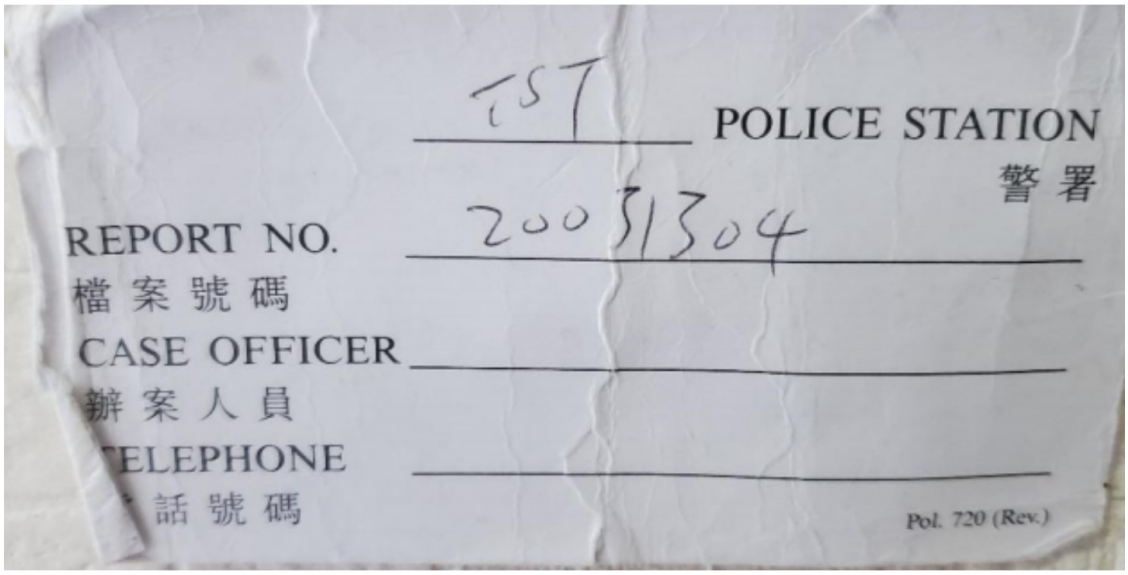

Exhibit 5: February 2021 emails from Evelyn Yudowitz to attorney Robert Hamer.

Dear Mr. Hamer,

Thank you for this invoice.

I am assuming that the black/red areas have been blocked out by you for confidential reasons. However, if they have been blocked by Larry, then I am very suspicious of the credibility of this invoice. It appears that this is an invoice for Larry to have diagnostic testing, not for treatment. Who is requesting for him to be tested? and what are Larry's plans for suggested treatment after completion of testing?

Also, he has been diagnosed in the USA as having a mental illness. It seems to me that he is trying to get a new diagnosis for legal reasons and not for getting medical care. I think he is trying to substantiate a case against his family, proving that he is not mentally ill and not address his medical needs. After researching psychiatric rates in Hong Kong, they vary amongst the private sector and these rates are at the extreme end of things. There are many psychologists in Hong Kong whom Larry can contact for much lower fees. A report is part of the diagnosis, not an additional $30,000.00 and a report would not be withheld after hours of testing. Again, making me think this is not a real invoice.

For Larry to agree to this amount before having financial back-up is highly irresponsible and should not be for me to decide after he has the treatments. I would like to have the name of the doctor who is doing this testing. This does not break confidentiality. I need to verify this clinical psychologist before any payment is even considered, especially based upon Larry's past history. Lastly, in the past, Larry has received a lot of money for college, for hotels, for tuition, etc and never attended any classes or completed the courses. What guarantee is Larry giving that he will complete all these tests and follow through with treatment.

I appreciate your efforts.

Evelyn

2.

Dear Mr. Hamer,

I have given this a lot of thought.

A few things come to mind. Knowing the place where he receives therapy is not an issue of confidentiality; perhaps for Lawrence it is but legally, I don't think so. I consider a breach of confidentiality would be having direct contact with the actual therapist.

With this said, I had help exploring the invoice you had provided and discovered the name of the therapy center (Jadis Burton Family Development Center) where Larry proposed receiving the assessment. I have reached out to them to get a quote of the tests listed on the invoice along with the report to find out that it would cost only $24,000 HKD and payment can be thru online transfer or PayPal. This includes the report which is provided 6-8 weeks after the assessment.

In addition, it was discovered that Larry's invoice could be and probably was altered thru a PDF editing program. It was not originally created using a proper invoice billing software program. So, I am assuming that Larry has added the last line of $30,000 HKD for a report since a report is included in the above-mentioned fee. I think that the Development Center would have used a proper billing program so I can only assume that the one Larry provided was not an original invoice.

Being that it is now February 7th, do you have any proof that Larry had actually begun the assessment process, which was started on the invoice as beginning Feb. 4 and Feb. 5? Do you have proof that he has paid for the services or at least a partial payment? This center would not initiate the assessment without a deposit. In the past, I have paid for services, classes, rent, etc of which Larry did not attend or was even present.

I hope you can understand my decision as I really feel every issue needs to be examined and questioned thoroughly. I do want to help him with his medical needs but feel that at this time, with what has been provided, I am uncomfortable assisting.

If he is pursuing using a therapist at the Jadis Burton Family Development Center and the Center can provide documentation, then I will pay them directly via their online transfer system.

Thank you for your assistance,

Evelyn

CONFIDENTIALITY AND USE OF ASSESSMENT RESULTS

This is a strictly confidential report of the patient referenced, and it is prohibited to copy, distribute, or reveal the contents of the report to those not authorized and without consent of the person it belongs to, or his/her parent/guardian in the case of minors.

This evaluation has a very specific purpose, and the results of the evaluation are based on a careful, specialized, and rigorous analysis of all information gathered about the patient, and not only test scores. The results of this evaluation should not be used for any other purpose beyond what is stated in the referral reason, and test-scores ought not to be re-interpreted beyond the way they are presented here.

REASON FOR REFERRAL

Mr. Margulies requested to be assessed to investigate whether he suffers from any form of mental illness. The purpose of this report is to describe Mr. Margulies' chief complaint, relevant background, any psychological symptoms and signs that may explain his current psychological profile.

ASSESSMENT PROCEDURE

The following tools and methods were utilized to derive comprehensive and standardized results:

- ✓ Initial clinical interview
- ✓ International Personality Item Pool - NEO - 120 item version (IPIP - NEO-120)
- ✓ Collateral Information:
  - Police statement (National Bureau of Investigations, Manila, Philippines)
  - Letter – Ex-girlfriend (Loraine Medalla)
  - Letter – Friend (Nguyen Weeks)
  - Letter – Friend (Michael Zhang)
  - Psychological Report – Christina Ramos
  - Screenshots of text messages
  - Psychological Report (Conducted on the 16th May 1979)

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

Mr. Margulies reported that he was born and bred in the United States of America. He is the youngest child in the family of 4 children. He described a childhood characterized by adverse childhood experiences which included an unhealth family environment. He added that his mother was a submissive woman who could not stand up for herself in the family. And he described his father as domineering figure in the family.

Furthermore, Mr. Margulies reported that his mother had told him his siblings illtreated because they were jealous of him. He stated that the toxic family environment affected his childhood severely, including his academic performance and behaviour. He reported that the problems with his family worsened a few years ago when he mortgaged a house and took the money with him to Hong Kong. He said his family felt betrayed by his decision because he had promised to live in Canada six months of the year. He added that the second reason his family wanted to harm him was because they had found out that he knew about his 1979 psychological report. He indicated that the family wanted to hide it from him because it contained evidence suggesting that his parents did not protect him when he was a child. He reported that revealing this information about his parents would have destroyed their reputation as they were well known philanthropists in the community. Lastly, Mr. Margulies mentioned that his mother wanted to silence him after finding out that he had told his brother about the abuse he suffered.

His parents also found out that he discovered a report about the mortgage by using private investigators. He said he received a threatening text message from a person named David who threatened to kill him by tying his feet to a concrete and then throwing him into the ocean. Mr. Margulies believes that his family hired an organization, such as a security company with family personnel contacts and many resources to track him and possibly harm him. He said the family described him as a manipulator, liar and mentally ill person who is unable to manage his life. According to him, he was subjected to intimidations and threats from people he described as mercenaries who were hired by his family to kill him.

He reported that a team of resourceful people were hired by his family to follow him wherever he went, including being followed to 10 countries he travelled to in the past few years. He indicated that these people stalked and threatened him in Hong Kong. He said that he and his girlfriend were visited by that group of people to continue to threaten and intimidate him. He added that another person informed him that his girlfriend, pregnant at the time, was approached by someone who wanted her to betray him so that they could harm him. He indicated that his girlfriend experienced severe pain and later told him that the the baby was moving too slowly inside her womb. He said he suspected that she may have been given poison to harm his unborn baby.

Mr. Margulies shared a letter which he said was written by his then girlfriend. The letter describes in detail how Mr. Margulies' life and that of his then girlfriend was in danger as they were being followed by unknown people that had an intention to harm them. In the letter, she mentioned that the strangers approached her and promised to give her everything she wanted if she agreed to betray Mr. Margulies. She also confirmed that they lost their baby during the same period when the strangers arrived. Mr. Margulies said he had to bury his demised baby alone without the help of the hospital. But he mentioned that he was able to keep a piece of the deceased baby's hair inside his bag as evidence that she was poisoned. But he reported that the bag was stolen and has not been found. As part of the evidence, Mr. Margulies shared a police complaint filed by his then girlfriend on the 21 July 2015 at the police station in Manila, Philippines where she reported the suspicious individuals who were stalking her.

He reported that his oldest brother warned him the day before they came to his girlfriend's house. He mentioned that his other brother told him that their father had asked him to help kill Mr. Margulies. His oldest brother then requested that he should write a letter appointing him (one of the brothers) as the trustee of a trust account. The group of men threatening him also told him of the trust account. He mentioned that three years later his lawyer gave him a copy of the trust document which indicated that his siblings would gain equal portions of the money meant for him if he died. He indicated that one of his brothers whom he said had a finance degree also stated he helped their father draft that document. Although Mr. Margulies mentioned that his family labelled him a liar and mentally ill, a report compiled by Christina Ramos, a psychologist concluded that Mr. Margulies was of sound mind and mentally fit. However, Christina noted that he has difficulty trusting people and can appear to be distant and aloof.

A letter written by his long-time friend who has known him for 34 years, Nguyen Weeks, also reported that Mr. Margulies was of stable mind and showed no signs of mental disturbances. The letter from Nguyen confirmed what Mr. Margulies has reported about his parents, especially that his father had propensity towards violent and aggressive behaviour. Nguyen expressed misgivings about Mr. Margulies' father following an incident in which his father behaved violently in his presence. Nguyen reported that he witnessed Mr. Margulies' father ramming the car he was driving against his car. He also detailed at length how Mr. Margulies was traumatized by his own father. Another friend, Mr. Miachael Zhang prepared a support letter that described Mr. Margulies as a mindful, helpful, thoughtful and kind person. Mr. Zhang denied that Mr. Margulies showed any signs of mental health problems. He described him as mentally stable despite the many personal difficulties he faced throughout his life.

Past Medical History

He reported that he has a history of sustaining some undefined fractures.

Past Psychiatric history

Although Mr. Margulies consulted a psychologist as a child, at the age of 8, no formal diagnosis was made. Since then, Mr. Margulies underwent 2 more psychological evaluations, including one conducted by me in 2021. Both assessments revealed no apparent psychological disorders.

International Personality Item Pool (IPIP-120)

Results

Openness to Experience Factor

His score on Openness to Experience is low, suggesting that he appreciates routine and prefers familiar environments. He is likely to be pragmatic and down-to-earth, focusing more on concrete information rather than abstract theories or ideas. This trait also indicates he might be resistant to change and new ideas, tending to be more cautious and less interested in novelty or exploring unfamiliar concepts. His imagination is low. Low scorers on this scale are more oriented to facts than fantasy. His liberalism is also low. Psychological conservatives prefer the security and stability brought by conformity to tradition, authority, and convention. These results are consistent with how he described himself as being generally conservative but also open to new and adventurous experiences as described by his friend.

Conscientiousness Factor

Mr. Margulies' score on Conscientiousness is high, suggesting that he is responsible, organized, and reliable. He is likely to be very detail-oriented and plan things carefully, preferring to follow schedules and set routines. He approaches tasks in a methodical and disciplined manner, consistently meeting deadlines, and his strong sense of duty often makes him a dependable team member or leader. His orderliness is high. People with high scores on orderliness are well-organized. They like to live according to routines and schedules. They keep lists and make plans. His dutifulness is high. This scale reflects the strength of a person's sense of duty and obligation. Those who score high on this scale have a strong sense of moral obligation. His achievement striving is low. Low scorers are content to get by with a minimal amount of work and might be seen by others as lazy. The result within this dimension is consistent with his friend's description of him as being kind, resourceful and thoughtful of others.

Extraversion Factor

His score on Extraversion is low, suggesting that he is more introverted and enjoys spending time alone or in small, intimate settings. He may find large social gatherings draining and prefer to engage in thoughtful, focused activities. Mr. Margulies might be quieter, more reserved, and contemplative, often spending time reflecting on his thoughts and feelings. His friendliness is low. Low scorers on Friendliness are not necessarily cold and hostile, but they do not reach out to others and are perceived as distant and reserved.

His excitement seeking is also low. Low scorers might feel overwhelmed by noisy and busy environments and may be averse to thrill-seeking. As explained earlier, it is apparent that Mr. Margulies was not always someone avoiding new and challenging experiences, it is possible that his disposition may have changed due to the difficulties he faced in the past, especially the multiple threats to his life as evidenced by the statement from his former girlfriend and the text messages he received from strangers.

Agreeableness Factor

Mr. Margulies' score on Agreeableness is in the average range, meaning he has a balance between taking care of his own needs and considering the needs of others. He can be cooperative and compassionate when it's necessary, but he is also capable of asserting himself and expressing his own needs. He can maintain a good balance between empathy and self-interest. His trust, however, is low. People who are low in trust assume that most others are selfish, non-truthful, and devious. But his altruism is high. Altruistic people find helping other people genuinely rewarding. Consequently, they are generally willing to assist those who are in need. Altruistic people find that doing things for others is a form of self-fulfillment rather than self-sacrifice. It is not surprising that Mr. Margulies scored low on trust in others. This is something that he expresses very often as he is scared for his life. He is untrusting in his family and other people whom he cannot understand their intentions.

Neuroticism Factor

His score on Neuroticism is in the average range, which means he is likely to have a balance of emotional highs and lows. Mr. Margulies is generally calm and emotionally stable, but can still experience periods of worry, stress, or negative emotions, particularly in response to life's ups and downs. His level of emotional sensitivity allows him to be resilient, while still being in tune with his emotions and the emotions of others. His anger is low. Low scorers do not get angry often or easily. His facet of self-consciousness is low. Individuals low in self-consciousness tend to display a high level of self-assurance and confidence in various situations. They are comfortable being themselves and do not constantly worry about how others perceive them or seek validation from others. Mr. Margulies' immoderation is high. High scorers feel strong cravings and urges that they have difficulty resisting. They tend to be oriented toward short-term pleasures and rewards rather than long-term consequences.

CONCLUSION AND DIAGNOSIS

Mr. Margulies reported a long history of feeling unsafe and expressing distrust in his family, whom he reported had declared him a liar, mentally unfit and that they are out to harm him. He described a long history of maltreatment during his childhood, long-term and harmful behaviors perpetuated by his family, both parents and siblings. Mr. Margulies has also experienced multiple incidents which may have solidified his lack of trust in his family. As reported earlier, he shared some documents that he said proved to be evidence of threats to his life.

Mr. Margulies was assessed in the past by Christina Ramos and the findings indicated that he was "cool, distant and aloof in his interpersonal relationships". Furthermore, he was described as uncomfortable when dealing with people that he perceives to be "overly friendly and familiar" with him. This description is consistent with the International Personality Item Pool (IPIP-120)'s Agreeableness Factor findings that he was low in trust. It is not uncommon that someone with his history may experience a high level of mistrust and general uneasiness daily, especially in his interaction with people whom he cannot "read" their intentions. Mr. Margulies may come across as paranoid due to his long-term pattern of distrust and suspicion of his family and strangers that he believes have been employed by his family to harm him. However, at present Mr. Margulies does not present any significant clinical symptoms suggestive of any mental illness. He is unlikely to be experiencing significant depressive symptoms and therefore has a lower risk of depression, with few or no symptoms impacting his daily life. He appears to possess coping strategies that aim to regulate his emotions associated with the stressful situation he experiences throughout his life. He has displayed resilience despite what he has been through, and this is indicative of psychological strength, grit, a practical approach to problem solving and is predictive of positive outcomes.

Diagnosis

Although Mr. Margulies has experienced multiple traumatic experiences, he does not meet the DSM-5 criteria for the diagnosis of PTSD, Adjustment Disorder, Major Depressive Disorder or anxiety disorder which are normally associated with a history of adverse life experiences.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Mr. Margulies is currently functioning well, mentally fit and shows no signs of significant clinical impairment, it is my professional opinion that if he agrees he may benefit from the following support to deal with his traumatic past as well as the recent events that have threatened his life:

- Cognitive processing therapy (CPT). This technique is used to help process trauma, since many people can't process it directly after it happens. CPT can also help someone restructure their beliefs around what happened in more helpful ways.
- Eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR). EMDR uses gentle tones or tapes to interrupt thought patterns or beliefs. This form of therapy or intervention can reduce anxiety, depression, fatigue, and paranoia.

Exhibit 8: A 1979 psychiatric report page documenting Martin Yudowitz’s long history of violence toward me as a child, for which he received outpatient psychiatric care, and Evelyn Yudowitz’s medical negligence in denying me therapy, which she later concealed through redactions and deception. In a 1995 therapy session, Evelyn presented a heavily redacted version of this report while seeking forgiveness for locking me in my room for two years, indicating her intent to hide her actions. Her psychiatrist later confirmed she lied about our home environment, claiming it was fine when it was definitely not, which convinced him there was no need for my therapy. This allowed Evelyn to hide the abuses and maintain a false narrative that harmed me. These events, combined with my pursuit of the unredacted report, demonstrate a decades-long pattern of concealment relevant to the charges once the valve was turned from "off" to "on" a flood of diffuse aggressiveness poured out.

At the level of awareness, Lawrence could talk about (1) his fear of monsters and of the attic in his house; (2) his view that father works too much and "talks and talks"; (3) his complaint that brother, Martin, who provokes fights and Lawrence runs to brother, Mike, for protection; and (4) his special "erotic" tie to mother (e.g., "we kiss each other every night.").

In summary, Lawrence is a very bright seven year old who is at present hampered by intense diffuse anxiety as he moves beyond the oedipal stage into latency, because appropriate defenses and cognitive control functions have not organized. This anxiety is interfering significantly with academic and cognitive development and functioning. His teasing, bad language, preoccupation with penises, etc. are understood by us as the by-product of phallic drive development which, however, is not appropriately organized by cognition and defenses. His usual attachment to mother - including his immature speech - could be viewed as an attempt to use regression in an effort to manage his current predicament.

Psychotherapy is strongly recommended and should promote cognitive-ego growth; academic and cognitive remediation would be indicated only if after a year of therapy, he shows that ego compromises have been fixed to a degree which the psychotherapy process cannot alone free. Without intensive therapy more severe ego and emotional symptoms are likely to crystallize.

April 2, 2025
RE: Letter of Support for Larry Margulies
Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to offer my unwavering support for Mr. Larry Margulies. My name is Michael Zhang, and I reside in Jiangsu, China. I have had the privilege of knowing Larry for several years, and our friendship has grown over time, becoming one that I truly value. We first met many years ago, and over the course of our relationship, I have come to understand his character deeply.

In 2019, Larry spent six months living in my home, and during that time, I had the opportunity to observe him in a more personal and everyday setting. Throughout the duration of his stay, Larry was a respectful and considerate guest. He was always mindful of the needs of those around him, ensuring that his presence did not disrupt our household dynamics. His thoughtfulness extended to simple acts of kindness, whether it was assisting with daily chores or offering helpful insights during conversations. Larry's ability to adapt to different environments with ease and grace is a testament to his gentle and calm nature.

In addition to being a guest in my home, I also had the opportunity to witness Larry's professional contributions. In 2003, he worked with several students in a professional capacity, and I had the pleasure of observing his work. During that time, Larry demonstrated exceptional dedication and commitment to his role.

His ability to engage with students, foster learning, and create a positive environment was truly remarkable. He showed a natural ability to connect with the students, offering them the support and encouragement they needed to succeed. His work was always thorough, and he took great care to ensure that each student's needs were met. His patience and understanding made him a valuable asset to the team, and his contributions were highly regarded.

Larry is a nostalgic, cautious, and simple-minded individual. He often reflects on past experiences with fondness, holding on to the memories that shaped him into the person he is today. However, this nostalgia is not a limitation—it is part of what makes him thoughtful and deliberate in his decision-making. Larry takes time to consider his options and often approaches challenges with a sense of caution, ensuring that his decisions are well-thought-out and responsible. His careful nature has served him well, and I have always respected his ability to consider all angles before making a decision. I would also like to address a matter that has been brought to my attention by certain members of Larry's family regarding his mental health. It has been suggested that Larry may have mental health challenges, but I can confidently state that this is not the case. From my personal experience and years of knowing Larry, I can attest to the fact that his mental health is perfectly normal. He is a well-balanced individual who has always exhibited sound judgment, emotional stability, and a clear understanding of his surroundings. I have never observed any signs of mental health issues that would affect his ability to function or live his life to the fullest. On the contrary, Larry's emotional maturity, calm demeanor, and strong sense of responsibility have consistently been apparent.

Larry has always been a kind-hearted individual, someone who approaches life with sincerity and a genuine desire to do good. He has a thoughtful approach to his relationships and takes great care in maintaining them. His relationships with friends and family are built on trust and respect, and he has always sought to foster positive connections with those around him. I have personally witnessed his ability to offer thoughtful advice, lend a helping hand, and provide unwavering support when needed.

It is also important to note that Larry's resilience in facing challenges has been an inspiration. He has faced personal difficulties throughout his life, yet he has always managed to overcome them with grace and strength. Whether in his personal or professional life, Larry has demonstrated a remarkable ability to adapt and continue moving forward, never allowing setbacks to define him. His perseverance and determination to build a life that aligns with his values have been evident in everything he does.

In conclusion, I offer my full support for Larry Margulies. He is an individual of great integrity, emotional stability, and kindness. His mental health is entirely normal, and I have no doubt that he will continue to contribute positively to any environment he finds himself in. I wholeheartedly recommend him and am confident that he will succeed in all his future endeavors.

Yours faithfully,

Michael Zhang

Exhibit 11: Letter from Nguyen Weeks, October 17, 2022

Letter in Support of Lawrence Yudowitz
Submitted by Nguyen Weeks
October 17, 2022

My name is Nguyen Weeks and I work in an Organizational Development Department that supports the leadership and development of Healthcare workers across the State of California. I possess a Bachelor of Science in Marketing Communication from Emerson College and a Masters in Public Administration from the University of San Francisco.
I have known Lawrence “Larry” Yudowitz for 34 years. We met while in a mutual class together in the 10th grade. Although decades have passed, we remain in contact and remain friends.

In addition to our friendship, it was customary for my mother to meet all of my friends. She believed that all my friends were a part of a network of people she wanted to be engaged with. Larry met my mother on numerous occasions and they would engage in thoughtful, and heartfelt discussions while we were in high school and beyond.

It is my understanding that individuals in his family are attempting to state that he has mental health issues that impact his ability to think, live or build a life for himself. In all of the years I have known Larry, I have never known him to exhibit mental health challenges outside of the typical youth and young adult development phases and experiences that shape the lives of young people.
My second interaction with his father made me ponder about how children create behaviors to deal with traumatic situations in their lives and what impacts a household with excessive controls produces.
On the second visit to see Larry, I brought a family friend (Odessa) who resided in Newton, a neighboring town, to come socialize. On this particular day, as we rode through the back roads, which were dark because it was past sunset and because it was heavily shaded, Larry spotted his father’s car and he froze and pulled over on the side of the road. My friend and I had no idea what to expect at that moment. Larry walked over to his father’s car and they started to argue. When Larry got back into the car, his father took his Cadillac and rammed it into the side of the Saab on the pasAsenger’s side. This seemed erratic and extremely scary because we were in a very remote location, we did not really know his father and there is a car being used against another car. My friend and I got out of the car and Larry’s sister got into the car and drove away. Larry’s father told us that we should go home. As we walked (45 minutes) to the closest train station, we were bewildered that his father would show this level of violence, and it was in public, although whether in private or public, I did not feel it was merited, nor a productive way to get to the end result he was hoping for. As a person outside of the family, it was shocking, harmful and I would even go as far to say traumatic. My friend and I were bewildered and fearful of Dr. Yudowitz.

We wondered what the real life implications were for Larry especially when at this phase of life it is customary for teenagers to express more of their independence and question those in authority.

Despite that experience, it was clear that Larry had a dichotomous relationship with his father. On the one hand, he absolutely revered him and respected his accomplishments, and at the same time, there was always an underlying theme of fear woven into the relationship. Larry always sought the love, nurturance, and guidance from his father, but the relationship was strained and it had its limitations.

Larry has always been a kind individual, who when motivated, wil put his all into what he wants to accomplish. Larry can be pensive and thoughtful about his interactions. He has always taken chances where others may be more risk averse, whether it's business or travel. Larry is also resourceful and a strategic thinker who has ventured across the globe making relationships and building a life that affirms who he is and what he wants to do in the world.
It is my belief that during his childhood, Larry faced traumatic experiences that shaped him, that required coping strategies, but even with that, he is a person that would go against the grain - challenged what he thought was not right, questioned the notion of blind acceptance of harmful behaviors and actions by authority figures and has charted a life that allows him to build the life he wants.

Exhibit 16: Lesyl Medalla's notarized affidavit re: mid-2015 Baguio visit

AFFIDAVIT

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
CITY OF CEBU) S.S.

I, LESYL C. MEDALLA, of legal age, Filipino, single and with residence and postal address at Imus Highway, Lorega, Cebu City, after having been sworn in accordance with law, hereby depose and state:

1. That sometime on November 2015, I went to Baguio City for a vacation together with my boyfriend Larry Margulies, an American national;

2. During that period of time, we rented an apartment in Tan-awan Village, Baguio City;

3. Sometime on January 2016, my boyfriend Larry Margulies decided to visit a doctor for a regular medical check-up. We went to the hospital near the place we stayed. We arrived in the hospital at about 8:00 o'clock in the morning. Larry went inside the clinic of the Doctor and I stayed outside of the hospital;

4. While, I was waiting for Larry, I noticed a commotion in the hospital, thereafter, the security guard called me and told me to ask Larry to go back inside the clinic of the hospital to finish the check-up. There were four guards who stopped Larry from leaving the hospital;

5. I saw Larry looks so scared, while the Guards were holding him.

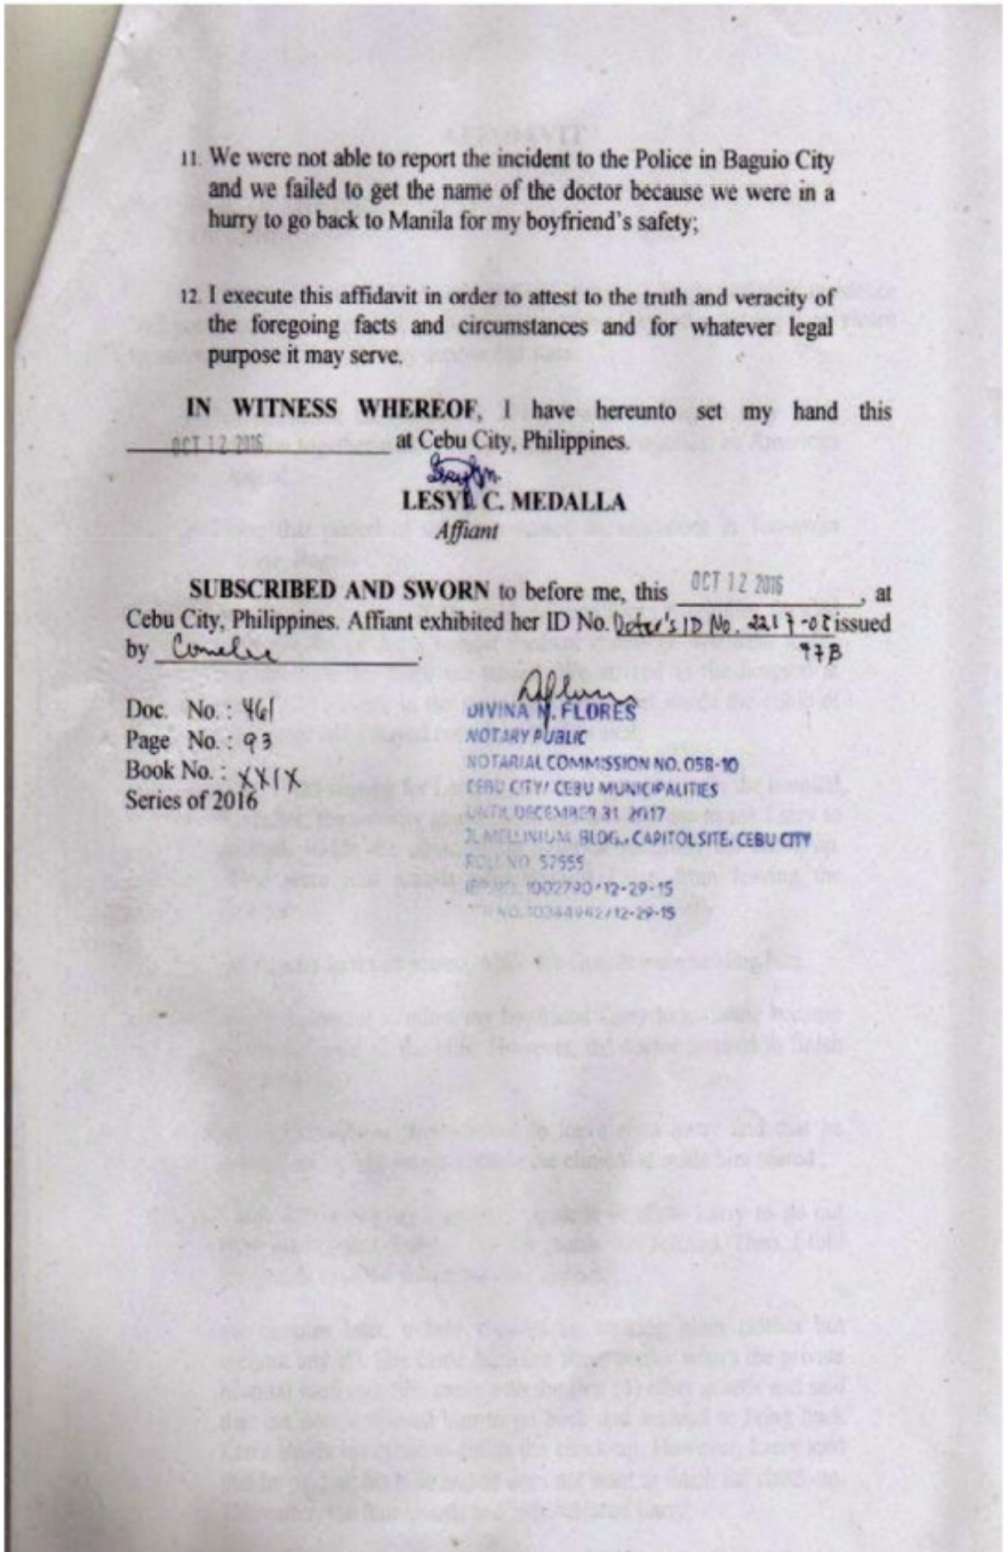
6. I asked the doctor to allow my boyfriend Larry to go home because he already paid all the bills. However, the doctor insisted to finish the check-up;

7. But, Larry told me that we had to leave right away and that he noticed something unusual inside the clinic that made him scared ;

8. I was also afraid, so I asked the guards to allow Larry to go out from the hospital grounds but the guards still refused. Then, I told the guards to call a police but they did not;

9. Few minutes later, a lady showed up wearing plain clothes but without any ID. She came from the street corner where the private hospital road end. She came with the four (4) other guards and said that the doctor wanted him to go back and insisted to bring back Larry inside his clinic to finish the check-up. However, Larry said that he paid all his bills and he does not want to finish the check-up. Thereafter, the four guards and lady released Larry;

10. From the hospital, we went directly to the bus terminal in Bagiuo and took a bus for Manila;



11. We were not able to report the incident to the Police in Baguio City and we failed to get the name of the doctor because we were in a hurry to go back to Manila for my boyfriend's safety;

12. I execute this affidavit in order to attest to the truth and veracity of the foregoing facts and circumstances and for whatever legal purpose it may serve.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this OCT 12 2016 at Cebu City, Philippines.

The Evidence Speaks: The Supplemental Affidavit

Supplemental Affidavit

To: DIY Detectives

State of Florida, County of Miami-Dade

I, Larry Margulies (formerly known as Lawrence Yudowitz), affirm under penalty of perjury pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 92.525 that the following is true and correct based on personal knowledge and documented evidence:

1. Purpose

This supplemental affidavit provides additional evidence and context to support the criminal complaint against Evelyn Yudowitz and Ken Shulman, demonstrating a sustained campaign of solicitation to commit murder, obstruction of justice, and stalking orchestrated primarily from Evelyn Yudowitz's Aventura residence at Aventura, FL. It prioritizes direct evidence of Evelyn's actions from her Aventura residence and Shulman's complicity, offering investigative leads to substantiate her Florida-based campaign, complementing the main complaint without redundant detail.

Jurisdictional Basis

I allege that Evelyn Yudowitz directed the criminal campaign against me from her Aventura residence. Although she may have been in Massachusetts at times, the planning, communication, and coordination of these acts—such as phone calls and emails—were managed from her primary residence in Aventura, as supported by her established residency and the pattern of her actions.. Ken Shulman's forwarding of the 2017 email (Exhibit 9), authored by Evelyn from her Aventura residence, constitutes a tortious act furthering her Florida-based conspiracy to commit murder, establishing long-arm jurisdiction under Fla. Stat. § 48.193(1)(a)(2).

2. Direct Evidence of Criminal Charges

A. Solicitation to Commit Murder (Fla. Stat. § 777.04(2))

Elements:

- Intent to cause another to commit murder.
- An overt act encouraging, commanding, or requesting another to engage in conduct constituting murder.

Facts Supporting Charge:

1. 2010 Hong Kong Death Threats and Assault (Coordinated from Aventura):
2. In 2010, after discovering Exhibit 8—a 1979 psychiatric report documenting Martin Yudowitz's violence toward me and Evelyn Yudowitz's medical negligence in denying me therapy—and mortgaging my Canada home (financed by Evelyn and her husband) to fund a company in Hong Kong, I was struck on the head with a bottle, requiring stitches (reported to Hong Kong police). That week, two non-Chinese men confronted me, one declaring, "We are going to kill you," and asking if I was Jewish, to which I responded about being raised by Protestants. My call to Evelyn Yudowitz and her husband from Hong Kong about this death threat elicited their repeating my words to assailants—"Did you tell them there was no reason to kill you?"—evidencing coordination through her Aventura-based network at her residence (Exhibit 8). Within days, an American bald man approached, asking someone on a phone call, "Do you want me to shoot him?" Due to this threat, I abandoned a $300,000+ investment in Best Score Limited and left Hong Kong immediately, not returning until 2020, and soon abandoned my Canada home for the same threats. This occurred after my discovery of Exhibit 8, which Evelyn feared would lead to legal action against her, despite my lack of intent to sue.
3. 2010 Seattle Attempted Murder Assault (Directed from Aventura):
4. After traveling from Hong Kong to Seattle to apply for a new passport at the Jackson Federal Building, a bottle dropped from the secure rooftop of the Brooklyn Seafood restaurant opposite the building missed my head by inches as I stepped forward after dining—an act with potentially fatal consequences as confirmed by my armed bodyguard (hired post-incident) with restaurant staff. The same American bald man from Hong Kong was present and later sat at my table in another restaurant to intimidate me. A gray-haired man also appeared, asking a barista if I bothered her after I bought coffee. I telephoned Evelyn, she referenced my Hong Kong exchange, saying, "I did not raise you" and "I'm not your mother, Cindy raised you" (their Evangelical neighbor), further evidencing her coordination of these threats (Exhibit 8). This gray-haired man later appeared in Cebu in December 2014, linked to a break-in and my baby's poisoning death, suggesting Evelyn's ongoing intent to eliminate me. I then flew to Boston, where my meeting with Evelyn and her husband there revealed their admitting knowledge of my mortgage—a detail I never shared—indicating surveillance from her Aventura residence.
5. December 2014 Cebu Infant Murder (Facilitated from Aventura):

6. In December 2014, days after David's group interfered with a private loan I'd repaid for three months to support Lesyl Medalla, our unborn child, and myself—forcing multiple moves and lost security deposits due to fleeing their threats—Evelyn's group visited Lesyl. I witnessed her kill our baby in horrible pain, appearing poisoned—the baby moving strangely as if dosed twice over days with a toxin they provided. She crushed its head against the sink to stop its suffering, stating she had to choose "between me or her son" and "it's my baby, I can kill it," under pressure from assailants who claimed "there was poison in the baby" and urged her to kill me. Lesyl's handwritten statement (Exhibit 17) confirms this, noting the assailants' involvement; Evelyn sent a paper check that cleared the same day, delaying aid despite my prior calls for help, evidencing her intent to facilitate this murder through her Aventura network (Exhibit 17). Lesyl, fearing for her life, delayed revealing this until we fled Cebu for another city, where she wrote her statement.
7. 2015 Taxi Incident and Witness Warning (Coordinated from Aventura):
8. In 2015, while Lesyl and I were entering a taxi near her mother's house, a witness warned me of an imminent threat to my life. Lesyl later informed me "They killed her" referring to this witness adding during childbirth, though I had not noticed her pregnancy at the time. I observed fear in Lesyl's expression, suggesting she believed this death was a warning from Evelyn's associates that they would kill her during childbirth if she did not assist in my murder. Immediately prior, Mary Jane, Lesyl's caregiver, directed us to that taxi under the pretense of safety for walking in the dark, but the timing and subsequent events indicate potential coordination with the assailants, reinforcing Evelyn's persistent efforts to eliminate me through intermediaries from her Aventura residence (Exhibit 17).
9. Exhibit 9: November 2017 Email (Authored from Aventura):
10. Exhibit 9, a November 2017 email authored by Evelyn Yudowitz from her Aventura residence at and forwarded by Ken Shulman, states, "You put a price in our heads," constituting an overt act under Fla. Stat. § 777.04(2) (Exhibit 9). This email confirms Evelyn's intent to solicit my murder, reflecting her retaliatory motive after my exposure of her actions, and demonstrates her coordination of the murder plot from Florida via phone and email. This intent is consistent with prior attempts on my life, including the 2010 Hong Kong bottle attack (abandoning $300,000 in Best Score Limited), 2015 threats, a 2015 chemical assault with an LSD-like substance during my escape from the Philippines, and Ken Shulman's 2017 parcel delivery enabling surveillance and further chemical attacks in China—all tangible steps directed from Aventura to execute the solicited murder.

B. Tampering with a Witness, Victim, or Informant (Fla. Stat. § 914.22)

Elements:

- Intentionally engaging in misleading conduct or intimidation.
- With the purpose of preventing a person from reporting a crime or seeking legal recourse.

Facts Supporting Charge:

1. 2014 Cebu Fund Withholding and Interference (Directed from Aventura):
2. In mid-June 2014, while in Cebu, Philippines, I contacted Evelyn Yudowitz, stating my intent to apply for a repatriation loan to return to the U.S. and report her crimes to the FBI, explicitly asking her not to interfere. From Aventura, FL, she insisted on managing my repatriation via a U.S. State Department liaison near my father's office in Arlington, Massachusetts, and withheld $100,000 from our joint account (Exhibit 1), blocking my escape and reporting. The liaison confirmed Evelyn's false claim that I was mentally ill, intended to discredit my FBI reports and facilitate attempts on my life, laughing and saying "Yes" when I asked if Evelyn with her husband had said I was crazy. The account, discovered in 2023, had over $100,000 in 2014. On August 10, 2014, Michael Yudowitz warned me by phone, "Mom told me they're sending guys to your room to set you up—I cannot stop it." Soon after, a gray-haired American from the 2010 Seattle bottle attack arrived with a police escort at Lesyl's mother's house—an address known only from my application. Evelyn and my father admitted sending them when I called, saying, "That's what you get for writing the letter," a document attached to my loan application alleging she hid funds, supported by a fax of their Cayman Islands wire transfer (Exhibit 1). A Philippines legal worker noted such escorts require a State Department request, and Cebu NBI leaders revealed a secret State Department letter in their safe, proving this obstruction.
3. 2016 Unauthorized Contact with Lawyer (Facilitated from Aventura):
4. In 2016, Martin Yudowitz contacted my lawyer, Sandi Pelikan of Oregon, without my permission to inquire about my actions. This unauthorized communication, potentially illegal and unethical for a licensed lawyer aware of professional conduct rules, suggests Martin sought information to aid Evelyn Yudowitz's criminal efforts against me, further evidencing obstruction directed from her Aventura residence (Exhibit 8).
5. December 2014 Cebu Break-In (Coordinated from Aventura):

6. In December 2014, days after David's group interfered with a private loan I'd repaid for three months to support Lesyl Medalla, our unborn child, and myself—forcing multiple moves and lost security deposits due to fleeing their threats—assailants attempted to break into our Cebu room. Lesyl's handwritten statement (Exhibit 17) notes this break-in, where I blocked entry with a bookcase; they used a fiber optic cable past our air conditioner for surveillance and left a five-gallon bleach can at the door, suggesting intent to clean a crime scene. I called Evelyn to report the break-in and my intent to go to police, but she instructed me to go to a hospital—indicative of a planned poisoning attempt, consistent with two subsequent hospital-based murder efforts (Cebu,Baguio)—indicating her Aventura-directed obstruction from her residence. The trust account, first revealed by David's group and later confirmed by Robert Hamer as withheld by trustee Evelyn, underscores her financial control over my vulnerability (Exhibit 17).
7. December 21, 2014, Cebu Visa Extension Delay and Spiked Food (Obstructed from Aventura):
8. After my unborn child's death, four immigration agents parked outside my room, showing ID but not addressing my visa status delay, explained by Lesyl in a letter to immigration (available upon request). An American identified me by name as food spiked with a hallucinogen was delivered, indicating surveillance. A State Department officer advised seeking safety at a certain Lapu-Lapu police station; later, another American near the hospital requested via phone to "call the same station," suggesting interference with my escape, likely via Evelyn's liaison. I reported a gray SUV and suspicious activity to the U.S. Consulate without telling Lesyl; a duty officer confirmed "a warrant on my life" after research, directing a follow-up call I couldn't make due to immediate danger, and referenced "Whitey" before disconnecting; a second officer acknowledged the logged threat, evidencing Evelyn's Aventura-directed obstruction via her network at her residence (Exhibit 17).
9. 2015 Hospital Poisoning Attempts (Directed from Aventura):

- Baguio Incident: In mid-2015, at a hotel in Baguio City paid for by Evelyn Yudowitz, she repeated verbatim a conversation I had with Lesyl at a public market, saying, "If I send you more money, will you use it to hurt someone?"—indicating contact with assailants surveilling me from her Aventura residence at her residence. I experienced a poisoning by spray from behind while on a heart monitor for an hour at Notre-Dame Hospital before a late doctor arrived to my check-up. My 2002 Hazmat certification from Preseant Associates in Seattle identified the dermal toxin's metallic taste as it entered my bloodstream, inducing a 200-beat-per-minute heart attack before the stress test, witnessed by several individuals as I was already attached to the heart monitor (Exhibit 16). The same assailant from 2014 Cebu food poisoning posed as a medical professional; a masked nurse replaced the intern, countering instructions to press a red button if faint. Lesyl's affidavit (Exhibit 16) confirms my presence, as hospital records are unavailable; security was later replaced, thwarting Evelyn's attempt to eliminate me; I fled to Manila.

- Manila Incident: After arriving in Manila from Baguio, my initial exit-visa application was lost without explanation, suggesting interference. On my second attempt at the Exit Bureau, I was sprayed with a toxin causing LSD-like and anti-freeze symptoms, aligning with the 2020 SMS senders' "mental illness" claims and Evelyn's State Department narrative to discredit me. A federal officer at the Manila Consulate invited me to file a complaint days prior, but agents rejected my pleas twice within two hours despite distress, likely due to Evelyn's false mental health claims or an agent's interference, reinforcing her Aventura-directed obstruction from her residence (Exhibit 16).

C. Obstruction of an Officer (Fla. Stat. § 843.02)

Elements:

- Knowingly obstructing an officer.
- In the execution of their legal duties.
- Without violence.

Facts Supporting Charge:

1. 2020-2021 Un-Redaction of Medical Billing Records (Directed from Aventura):
2. In 2020-2021, Evelyn Yudowitz directed a helper to un-redact my medical billing records, which I had blackened out to conceal the name and address of the location where I was to be assessed (Exhibit 5). My lawyer was responsible for ensuring the billing was correct, but Evelyn used my redaction as a pretext to investigate the hidden information, as she admitted in a 2021 email. This un-redaction occurred after I reported the SMS senders to Hong Kong police before October 8, 2020 (Exhibit 4), with the intent to provide these records to disprove false mental illness claims and validate my allegations. Her actions from her Aventura residence at her residence obstructed the police's investigation into my credibility and the SMS threats. The Hong Kong police provided me with three cards—one for each report, including one immediately after leaving mandatory quarantine and before the SMS was sent on October 8, 2020—instructing me to keep the most recent card (Exhibit 4), which includes the previous two reports in their system. This aligns with her concealment of Exhibit 8, which she feared would expose her negligence.

3. February 2021 Email to Attorney (Sent from Aventura):
4. Evelyn Yudowitz's February 2021 email to my attorney, Robert Hamer (Exhibit 5), sent from her Aventura residence at made false claims about my mental health and legal efforts to discredit me, obstructing my ability to seek justice and undermining my credibility with law enforcement.
5. 2021 Email from Attorney Robert Hamer (Facilitated from Aventura):
6. A 2021 email from my attorney, Robert Hamer (Exhibit 14), documents a conversation where Anne Yudowitz argued against providing additional funds to me, stating that extra funds would be used to "hurt them." Given the context of ongoing legal disputes, this suggests an intent to hinder legal actions against her, such as seeking arrests or filing complaints, though her exact meaning remains open to interpretation. This demonstrates Evelyn Yudowitz's intent, through intermediaries acting on her behalf from Aventura, to withhold financial resources to prevent me from pursuing legal action, obstructing justice from her residence.

D. Stalking (Fla. Stat. § 784.048)

Elements:

- Willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly harassing another person.
- Causing substantial emotional distress.

Facts Supporting Charge:

1. 2013-2015 Philippines Attack (Coordinated from Aventura):
2. During an attack between 2013 and 2015 in the Philippines, I called Evelyn Yudowitz, requesting financial aid for protection. She replied only, "I'll think about it," withholding help, and angrily claimed she held my emails in her hands at that moment about childhood abuses, calling me a liar—a statement consistent with her intent to suppress my reporting, evidencing her role in orchestrating the violence through her Aventura network at her residence (Exhibit 8). This was fueled by her mistaken belief, after discovering Exhibit 8, that I intended to sue her.
3. Philippines Surveillance by David (Directed from Aventura):
4. A man named David, referenced in the 2020 SMS (Exhibit 2), visited me multiple times in the Philippines while on his phone, suggesting orders from Evelyn Yudowitz's network, which sent a parcel to my location prior to this. When I warned him to stop surveillance or face investigation, he threatened, "I'll tie your feet to concrete and drop you into the ocean," linking him to her Aventura-based stalking from her residence. David's group also told loan company owners I was "crazy" and a trust account beneficiary—information I first learned from them, later confirmed by my attorney, Robert Hamer—spreading false claims to isolate me and facilitate tracking, as evidenced by their December 2014 break-in attempt (Exhibit 17).

5. 2015 Gray SUV Incidents (Coordinated from Aventura):
6. During this time, I observed a gray SUV parked outside our hotel gate avoiding having their license plate recorded at the gate and a man walking between the SUV and our window. From our room, I overheard individuals discussing plans to shoot and kill two people, understood as a threat against Lesyl and me. I immediately called the U.S. Consulate, and the officer advised going to Lapu Lapu police station number 6. While I was at the station, Lesyl was confronted by a gray SUV team at the hotel, who offered her bribes to falsely accuse me and warned of "poison" from our deceased baby in her womb, claiming they could "handle everything." Lesyl understood "take care of him" as a threat to harm or kill me, aligning with Martin Yudowitz's prior phone statement that Evelyn and her husband ordered him "to take care of you," later interpreted as a threat to my life. Lesyl's statement (Exhibit 17) corroborates the SUV and threats, evidencing coordination by Evelyn's network from her Aventura residence at her residence.
7. 2020 SMS Harassment and CIA Reference (Directed from Aventura):
8. In 2020, I reported the SMS senders to Hong Kong police before October 8, 2020, when the SMS was sent (Exhibit 2), initiating an investigation documented by a police report card (Exhibit 4). The SMS claimed I "knew David previously" and was mentally ill, with a "CIA" mention suggesting possible involvement of a CIA agent, potentially linked to Evelyn Yudowitz's husband's reported CIA ties as former Director of Psychiatry for the Massachusetts Department of Corrections. Evelyn's network, coordinated from her Aventura residence at directed the SMS senders, using information from her surveillance to obstruct the Hong Kong police investigation (Exhibit 5).
9. Pattern of Discrediting and Isolation (Orchestrated from Aventura):
10. From 2010 to 2021, Evelyn Yudowitz and her network, including Martin—who has called me a "manipulator" since childhood after I sought protection from his violence through our oldest brother—consistently referred to me as such, originating with Evelyn and Martin's accusation that I manipulated Evelyn into purchasing a $1,000,000 Canada home, expecting me to reside there six months yearly.. When I traveled to Hong Kong and Seattle, she felt betrayed by her investment. This label was echoed by Jerry in Davao and an American security person in Davao—strangers using Evelyn's exact language—suggesting she spread this narrative from her Aventura residence at her residence to discredit me, isolate me, and facilitate her stalking campaign, causing significant emotional distress and fear for my safety (Exhibit 8). By calling me a manipulator, Evelyn Yudowitz manipulated the ill feelings of these individuals toward me, making them angry and motivating them to assist her in her attempts to kill me. This manipulation was a deliberate tactic to turn others against me and enlist their support in her criminal efforts. Jerry in Davao, who used Evelyn's exact language to discredit me by calling me a 'manipulator,' held official status with the Quezon City Drug Task Force, as evidenced by his identification card—bearing his name and photo—I witnessed shown to a desk officer at the jail where he was arrested while investigating counterfeit Marlboro cigarettes. This indicates that Evelyn's network infiltrated local law enforcement, likely with U.S. State Department support, obstructing my attempts to seek help from the FBI, as Jerry stated, 'they have people in the FBI."

E. Conspiracy to Commit Murder by Ken Shulman (Fla. Stat. § 777.04(3))

Elements:

- Agreement to commit murder.
- An overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Facts Supporting Charge:

1. Forwarding the November 2017 Email and Related Actions (Facilitated from Aventura):
2. Ken Shulman's forwarding of the November 2017 email (Exhibit 9), authored by Evelyn Yudowitz from her Aventura residence at stating, "You put a price in our heads," advanced a conspiracy to murder me by facilitating Evelyn's surveillance, particularly in China. My pre-2017 eBooks detailed a decade of attempts tied to Evelyn, including David. In April 2017, Shulman sent a parcel to my China address—known only to him—followed by an American investigator's visit and chemical assaults in Beijing and Jiangxi, confirmed by my 2002 Hazmat certification (reported to police). I was assaulted at the original delivery site and again after redirecting it, with my passport pickpocketed in Guangzhou via bank card tracking, mirroring McSweeney's 1991 methods. Shulman later asked my location, claiming ignorance, suggesting he tracked my movements. The email confirmed their awareness of these attempts, cited as the reason for stopping my funding, and signaled intent to harm me, constituting an overt act in Evelyn's Aventura-based conspiracy (Exhibit 9).

3. Investigative Leads

The following leads are organized by charge to support further investigation:

- Solicitation to Commit Murder:

1. Subpoena Evelyn Yudowitz's 2010-2021 phone and email records from Aventura providers at her residence (Exhibits 2, 5, 9; noting she used an older email account for the 2017 threat in Exhibit 9 and later switched to a new account) to confirm coordination of threats and assaults.
2. Interview Yudowitz at her Aventura residence regarding her admissions in Exhibits 5 and 9, and her role in the 2010 calls and 2014 Cebu interference.
3. Investigate the 2017 American investigator linked to Shulman's parcel and assaults.

- Tampering with a Witness:

1. Subpoena U.S. State Department records (01/2013–12/2014) to confirm Evelyn's liaison's role in Cebu and the NBI letter (Exhibit 1).
2. Subpoena Notre-Dame Hospital, Baguio, records (mid-2015) to verify the heart attack incident and retrieve Lesyl's statement (Exhibit 16).
3. Subpoena Martin Yudowitz's 2016 communications with Shulman and Sandi Pelikan (Exhibit 15).

- Obstruction of an Officer:

1. Subpoena the 2020-2021 phone and email records of Evelyn Yudowitz's helper to investigate their role in un-redacting my medical billing records and coordination with the SMS senders, as directed from Aventura (Exhibits 2, 5).
2. Coordinate with Hong Kong authorities and INTERPOL to investigate the SMS senders (Exhibit 2) and their connections to assailants in other jurisdictions.

- Stalking:

1. Investigate David's New England origin (2020 SMS, Exhibit 2), noting his Purple Heart claim and Kuku's Nest café presence in Cebu, and his surveillance activities in the Philippines tied to Evelyn's Aventura network.
2. Investigate Jerry in Davao for FBI connections and his role in Evelyn's network (Exhibit 17).
3. Investigate Paul McSweeney's 1991 bank tracking for Evelyn to confirm its role in her Aventura-based stalking (Exhibit 8).

- Conspiracy to Commit Murder:

1. Subpoena Martin Yudowitz's 2016 communications with Shulman and Greenwald's trust records (Exhibit 15) to confirm Shulman's role.

2. Investigate the trust account in my name, including its creation, funding sources, and expenditures, focusing on Carol Greenwald's unauthorized access and management through a real estate agent (Exhibit 15), and whether funds financed the stalking and threats.

Additional Leads:

- 1991-2010 McSweeney Surveillance: In 1991, Paul McSweeney, a Boston-based private detective/risk management specialist and Evelyn Yudowitz's friend, surveilled me, reporting my banking records to Evelyn and her husband. He met me multiple times in 1990-1991, disclosing this, and parked his detective vehicle outside my residence, identifying two associates' backgrounds one a confidential informant —later confirmed—showing his investigation for Evelyn. In 2010, I confronted him in my father's office about this and subsequent life threats; he falsely denied it, claiming "he owed his life" to my parents. This Aventura-directed surveillance began a decades-long tracking pattern.
- February 2016 Macao Incident: After fleeing the Philippines, I called Martin Yudowitz from Macao for aid waiting my new bank card. He said, "Larry, you need help!," before I spoke, cited my attire from surveillance, and paid only one night's hotel bill, leaving me vulnerable. He claimed, "Shulman knows where you are" and held money for me. Shulman denied it and asked, "Are you still using drugs?" despite my sobriety (confirmed by roommates), furthering Evelyn's harassment from Aventura.
- 2019-2020 Federal Tracking: On March 3, 2019, at 6 AM at the Macao-China border during Covid restrictions, an American agent asked the Chinese agent escorting me about my appearance, indicating surveillance tied to my Mongolia kidnapping and Hong Kong tracking (Exhibit 2).
- CIA Brainwashing Experiments Context: Evelyn's husband, as former Director of Psychiatry for the Massachusetts Department of Corrections, reportedly oversaw a prison hospital involved in CIA brainwashing experiments (per an Ira Liebowitz article and CIA agent quote), potentially linked to LSD-like poisoning attempts in 2015 and the "Whitey" reference in 2014 Cebu. Around 1994, while alone with my father, I heard him say, "I'm going to miss Whitey because he could fix a problem," referring to Boston gangster and FBI informant Whitey Bulger, who murdered people while evading justice through FBI protection. This statement connects to the 2014 Cebu incident, where a U.S. Consulate officer referenced "Whitey" regarding a "warrant on my life," suggesting a sustained reliance on criminal networks and corrupt law enforcement ties orchestrated from Evelyn's residence at Aventura.

Direct Physical Threats or Attempts

- 2017 Mongolia Kidnapping (Linked to Aventura-based Campaign):
- On or about February 28, 2017, during Mongolia's Tsagaan Sar holiday, I was kidnapped and nearly murdered at my lodging in Ulaanbaatar after crossing from China, following an interview with Chinese special police in Xilinhot a week earlier regarding a related matter (details withheld per China's privacy laws). Assailants ambushed me after a hotel employee was replaced, with one stating to Mongolian police, in my presence, that the act ensured "no dead body inside the hotel room"; a policeman reenacted swinging a pipe at my head, mirroring their intent (sworn statement). After escaping, corrupt police contacted the U.S. Consulate; I spoke to an agent named "Jason," who asked about my Skype calls. At my next hotel, I dialed a number with no answer, only to hear Jason's voice respond, suggesting surveillance tied to Evelyn Yudowitz's Aventura network at following Ken Shulman's parcel delivery and Evelyn's surveillance (Exhibit 9). Coordinate with INTERPOL and Mongolian authorities to investigate this incident.

Signature

I assert that these incidents—spanning 2010 stalking (Exhibit 8), 2014 Cebu obstruction and infant murder (Exhibits 1, 17), 2015 Baguio poisoning (Exhibit 16), and 2017 conspiracy (Exhibit 9)—constitute a continuous campaign by Evelyn Yudowitz from her Aventura residence to solicit my murder, obstruct justice, and stalk me, with Ken Shulman's conspiracy via Exhibit 9, supported by additional leads.
